The Grand Jury charges:

INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

1. From on or about July 6, 2001 to about November 3, 2004, defendant KYLE DUSTIN FOGGO, aka "Dusty" Foggo, was the senior officer in charge of support operations at an "Overseas Location" of the Central Intelligence Agency ("CIA"), and as such directed the Overseas Location's daily operations supplying equipment to personnel overseas.

2. From on or about November 4, 2004 to about May 12, 2006, defendant FOGGO was the Executive Director of the CIA (then the third-highest position in the CIA), and as such directed the CIA's daily operations.

SB:JAF:PLBH:nlv:San Diego
2/13/07

1 3. As a CIA employee, defendant FOGGO owed the United States
2 and its citizens his honest services, including his loyal, faithful,
3 disinterested, unbiased service, to be performed free of deceit, undue 4 influence, conflict of interest, self-enrichment, self-dealing,
5 concealment, fraud, and corruption.

6 4. As a public official, FOGGO had a responsibility to place
7 loyalty to the United States, and its Constitution, laws, and ethical 8 principles, above private gain. Among other things, FOGGO was 9 prohibited from using or permitting the use of his office in a manner 10 intended to coerce or induce another, including a subordinate, to 11 provide any benefit to himself or his friends.

12 5. From in or about 1993 through in or about 2005, defendant
13 FOGGO completed ethics training approximately eight times, and served
14 approximately two years as a Deputy Ethics Official.

15 6. At all times material to this indictment, defendant BRENT
16 ROGER WILKES owned and controlled ADCS, Inc. and numerous related
17 entities, including Archer Defense Technologies, Inc., Group W
18 Advisors Inc., Group W Transportation Inc., and Wilkes Corporation, 19 which WILKES ran as a consortium of related companies (hereinafter 20 referred to as "WILKES's companies").

21 7. From late 2002 on, WILKES's companies' main corporate office
22 was at 13970 Stowe Drive, Poway, California. WILKES's companies also 23 maintained an office located at 14020 Thunderbolt Place, Chantilly, 24 Virginia.

1 Services Wire Fraud in violation of Title 18, United States Code,
2 Sections 1343 and 1346.

3 METHODS AND MEANS

4 10. The conspirators used the following methods and means, among 5 others, to carry out the objects of the conspiracy:

6 a. Defendant WILKES and other conspirators provided things
7 of value to defendant FOGGO, and defendant FOGGO accepted these things
8 of value.

9 b. Defendant FOGGO agreed to be corruptly influenced in 10 his performance of his official duties.

11 c. The coconspirators misrepresented and concealed 12 material facts in dealings with the CIA and its employees. Such 13 material facts included defendant WILKES's role and interest in CIA
14 contract matters, defendant FOGGO's receipt and expectation of 15 benefits from WILKES and WILKES' companies, and defendant FOGGO's
16 life-long friendship with defendant WILKES.

17 d. The coconspirators created and used shell companies and 18 straw men to conceal defendant WILKES's financial interest and role
19 in CIA contracts, and to launder money obtained from CIA contracts.

20 e. Defendant FOGGO used his seniority and influence within 21 the CIA to influence CIA contractors to provide money to defendant
22 WILKES.

23 f. Defendant FOGGO provided defendant WILKES and other
24 coconspirators with internal government information, including
25 classified information, about the CIA, CIA contractors, and other
26 matters, to help WILKES obtain money from the CIA and CIA contractors;
27 despite the fact that defendant WILKES never had the requisite
28

1 security clearance to receive classified information from defendant
2 FOGGO.

3 OVERT ACTS

4 11. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the objects
5 thereof, defendants FOGGO and WILKES committed, and caused to be 6 committed, the following overt acts, among others, within the Southern 7 District of California and elsewhere:

8 (1) By no later than December 2002, WILKES reserved
9 an office for FOGGO near WILKES's own office in the executive suite
10 of WILKES's companies' new Poway headquarters, and offered FOGGO a 11 high-level, high-paying position in WILKES's companies, an offer which 12 remained open and under consideration by FOGGO at all material times.

13 (2) On or about May 14, 2003, FOGGO sent WILKES an
14 email stating in part as follows with respect to a certain CIA
15 Contractor with whom FOGGO's Overseas Location had negotiated large 16 contracts (hereinafter, "the CIA Contractor"): "I have been throwing 17 millions at his company for about 18 months - and I'm thinking we 18 should be able to leverage some Wilkes Group contacts."

19 (3) On or about June 17, 2003, FOGGO introduced WILKES
20 to the CIA Contractor.

21 (4) On or about July 25, 2003, FOGGO concealed from 22 a subordinate the identity and contact information of an associate
23 (hereinafter, FOGGO's "Water Contact") that FOGGO knew could supply
24 the Overseas Location with bottled water at a much lower price than 25 the Overseas Location had been paying.

26 (5) On or about August 3, 2003, WILKES paid for FOGGO
27 and his family to join WILKES and his family for a vacation in 28 Scotland. This vacation included over $12,000 in private jet flights,

1 over $4,000 for a helicopter ride to a round of golf at Carnoustie,
2 and over $44,000 for a stay at the Pitcastle Estate, which included
3 trout fishing on hill lochs, salmon fishing on the River Tay, clay
4 pigeon shooting, archery, and a seven-person staff.

5 (6) On or about September 10, 2003, FOGGO sent WILKES
6 an email titled "Scotland and Cigars," stating in part: "I'll work
7 the water thing with [FOGGO's Water Contact] - but you sending a
8 follow-up email is a good idea, I want to insure [sic] that B-
9 connection is not forgotten....Group W is in this deal."

10 (7) On or about September 17, 2003, FOGGO sent an 11 email to WILKES, stating that FOGGO's Water Contact was ready to work
12 with WILKES, and that WILKES should "work the price" with the Water
13 Contact "and then have a US firm (Group W?) fax to me an offer to sell 14 at X price."

15 (8) On or about October 22, 2003, WILKES caused one
16 of WILKES' assistants to send an email to a close associate and 17 subordinate of WILKES (hereinafter, "Wilkes Subordinate X"), reminding
18 Wilkes Subordinate X of tasks WILKES had assigned him in connection
19 with the project to supply water to FOGGO's Overseas Location.

20 (9) In or about December 2003, at a party at WILKES's
21 offices in Poway, WILKES introduced FOGGO to a group of employees as 22 a future executive in WILKES's companies.

23 (10) In or about December 2003, at the same party,
24 FOGGO told an ADCS employee in human resources that he wanted to "get 25 a profile" on some other ADCS employees.

26 (11) From on or about December 27, 2003 to January 3, 27 2004, FOGGO joined WILKES for a vacation at the "Sullivan Estate" in 28 Haleiwa, Hawaii, for which WILKES paid approximately $32,000.

1 (12) On or about January 7, 2004, immediately after his
2 Hawaiian vacation with WILKES, FOGGO sent Wilkes Subordinate X an
3 email with a subject line of "Re: Aloha," stating: "Had a great time
4 - no diving, but still fun. I would like the 'President' or 'CEO' of 5 '[entity]' to come visit. Brent told me that was you (smile), so lets
6 [sic] get to it. I'll need to brief you a bit on how we need to play
7 this, but that needs to be face to face, before you meet my people."

8 (13) On or about January 27, 2004, FOGGO met with 9 WILKES, Wilkes Subordinate X, and the CIA Contractor at CIA
10 headquarters.

11 (14) On or about January 27, 2004, at the above
12 meeting, FOGGO told Wilkes Subordinate X that FOGGO would get Wilkes
13 Subordinate X a procurement services contract with the CIA.

14 (15) On or about January 28, 2004, WILKES treated FOGGO
15 to a dinner at the Capital Grille, for which WILKES paid $1,195.96,
16 of which FOGGO's pro rata share was approximately $398.65.

17 (16) On or about January 28, 2004, the CIA Contractor
18 entered into contracts with WILKES, agreeing to pay a WILKES company 19 $375,000 every three months for lobbying services; to form a joint 20 venture with WILKES to explore non-CIA business; and to pay WILKES
21 (through Group W Advisors, Inc.) 30 percent of the joint venture's net
22 income in 2004, and 20 percent in subsequent years.

23 (17) On or about January 29, 2004, defendant WILKES
24 (through Group W Advisors, Inc.) received $375,000 from the CIA
25 Contractor.

26 (18) On or about February 9, 2004, WILKES sent FOGGO
27 an email asking FOGGO to suggest to the CIA Contractor that WILKES was 28

1 playing a role in structuring a prospective CIA contract because doing
2 so, "[d]oesn't cost you anymore but gives me a %."

3 (19) In or about late February 2004, WILKES and Wilkes
4 Subordinate X traveled separately to FOGGO's Overseas Location to 5 discuss the procurement services contract.

6 (20) On or about February 26, 2004, FOGGO instructed
7 Wilkes Subordinate X not to tell other CIA employees about the long-
8 standing personal relationship they had through WILKES, and instead
9 to tell CIA employees that Wilkes Subordinate X and FOGGO met in a
10 cigar bar in Washington, D.C.

11 (21) On or about February 26, 2004, FOGGO introduced
12 Wilkes Subordinate X to lower-level CIA employees as someone who could 13 assist them in procurement activities, and both FOGGO and Wilkes
14 Subordinate X acted as if they were merely arms-length business
15 associates.

16 (22) On or about February 28, 2004, in a meeting at 17 FOGGO's home, FOGGO, WILKES, and Wilkes Subordinate X agreed that they 18 needed to ensure that any procurement services business obtained from 19 the Overseas Location could not be directly traced back to FOGGO and 20 WILKES's relationship, and that WILKES would therefore take his share 21 of the proceeds through subcontracts.

22 (23) On or about March 14, 2004, FOGGO sent an email
23 to the CIA Contractor stating that he had discussed the CIA
24 Contractor's recent classified contract proposal with WILKES, and 25 stating further: "I must tell you - I am very pleased that you and 26 Brent are working together."

27 (24) In or about March 2004, under the company name
28 Archer Defense, which was then a part of ADCS, Wilkes Subordinate X

1 caused to be delivered to the Overseas Location a shipment of bottled
2 water, for a price that was marked-up over 60% from the price FOGGO's
3 Water Contact charged.

4 (25) On or about April 5, 2004, FOGGO filed and
5 certified the truthfulness, completeness, and accuracy of a "Public
6 Financial Disclosure Report" (Form SF-278) for calendar year 2003,
7 which Report called for disclosure of (among other things) all gifts
8 "received from one source totaling more than $285" and agreements or
9 arrangements for future employment, and from which Report FOGGO
10 omitted any mention of (a) the thousands of dollars in benefits he
11 received from WILKES in 2003, or (b) his job offer from WILKES.

12 (26) On or about April 5, 2004, in an email to a CIA
13 ethics officer, to which email FOGGO attached his 2003 Form SF-278, 14 FOGGO stated in part: "Greetings from [Overseas Location]. Having 15 been the 'Ethic's [sic] Guy' in both the DS&T and the DA, I wish you 16 the best with this annual exercise."

17 (27) On or about June 11, 2004, while visiting the 18 Overseas Location to negotiate the procurement services contract, 19 Wilkes Subordinate X treated FOGGO to a meal at a restaurant near the 20 Overseas Location, for which Wilkes Subordinate X paid $235.82, of 21 which FOGGO's pro rata share was approximately $117.91.

22 (28) On or about July 29, 2004, at WILKES's direction,
23 Wilkes Subordinate X formed a new corporation of which he was 24 nominally the only director, officer, or employee, hereinafter "Shell 25 Company No. 1", to receive the procurement services contract from the 26 CIA.

27 (29) On or about August 19, 2004, FOGGO sent emails to 28 Wilkes Subordinate X, informing him that FOGGO had instructed his

1 deputy to "check and push [the procurement contract] along to insure
2 completion" and also stating with regard to Wilkes Subordinate X's
3 request for an advance payment of one-half the total amount of service
4 fees for the procurement contract: "I can help with that. I'll work
5 it."

6 (30) On or about September 16, 2004, FOGGO sent an
7 email to WILKES regarding concerns that the CIA Contractor had raised 8 about WILKES, stating: "As you know I do have influence with him [the 9 CIA Contractor] and know I could get him to listen . . . that said if 10 this issue is beyond repair in your mind - I am now, have been in the 11 past, and will continue to as long as I breath [sic] - be your partner 12 . . . so what do you want me to do?"

13 (31) On or about September 20, 2004, effective
14 September 1, 2004, FOGGO caused the Overseas Location to enter into 15 a one-year procurement services contract with Shell Company No. 1, 16 with a firm fixed-price fee of $1,699,904 for services to be provided.

17 (32) On or about September 23, 2004, FOGGO caused the 18 CIA to wire-transfer to Shell Company No. 1 an $850,000 advance
19 payment on the procurement services contract.

20 (33) On or about September 24, 2004, Wilkes Subordinate
21 X caused $555,000 to be wire-transferred from Shell Company No. 1 to
22 WILKES's companies.

23 (34) On or about October 28, 2004, without having 24 received any additional service funds from the CIA, Wilkes Subordinate 25 X caused $150,000 more to be wire-transferred from Shell Company No.
26 1 to WILKES's companies, bringing WILKES's direct share of the initial 27 $850,000 to $705,000.

28

1 (35) On or about November 20, 2004, WILKES treated
2 FOGGO to a meal at the Serbian Crowne restaurant, for which WILKES
3 paid $773.65, of which FOGGO's pro rata share was approximately 4 $257.88.

5 (36) On or about November 20, 2004, WILKES gave FOGGO
6 an Ellie Bleu cigar humidor, which Wilkes Subordinate X had purchased
7 for $2,307.38 at WILKES's direction.

8 (37) On or about November 21, 2004, WILKES treated
9 FOGGO to a meal at the Capital Grille in Tyson's Corner, Virginia, for 10 which WILKES paid $712.15, of which FOGGO's pro rata share was 11 approximately $237.38.

12 (38) On or about November 22, 2004, WILKES treated
13 FOGGO to a meal at Ruth's Chris Steak House in Fairfax, Virginia, for 14 which WILKES paid $902.33, of which FOGGO's pro rata share was 15 approximately $225.58.

16 (39) On or about February 28, 2005, Wilkes Subordinate
17 X caused $110,000 to be wire-transferred from Shell Company No. 1 to 18 WILKES's companies.

19 (40) On or about March 18, 2005, FOGGO sent an email
20 to a bank loan officer stating in part: "I plan to retire in circa 3
21 years - while I have a big offer from a company in California - I may 22 stay in the area due to my worth to local companies...I guess I can't 23 give you a firm answer - I would bet we will be elsewhere - which 24 leads me to consider renting..."

25 (41) On or about March 31, 2005, WILKES sent Wilkes
26 Subordinate X an email stating: "I talked to the big guy last night.
27 He will sprinkle some magic dust today that should solve your problem.

28 BRW"

1 (42) On March 31, 2005, FOGGO sent an email to the 2 acting head of the Overseas Location inquiring about delays in
3 payments to Shell Company No. 1, resulting in three service fee
4 payments totaling $231,792 to Shell Company No. 1 in less than thirty 5 days.

6 (43) On or about March 31, 2005, WILKES sent FOGGO an
7 email thanking him for inquiring with the Overseas Location.

8 (44) On or about April 28, 2005, FOGGO filed and
9 certified the truthfulness, completeness, and accuracy of a "Public
10 Financial Disclosure Report" (Form SF-278) for calendar year 2004,
11 which Report called for disclosure of (among other things) all gifts
12 "received from one source totaling more than $285" and agreements or
13 arrangements for future employment, and from which Report FOGGO
14 omitted any mention of (a) the thousands of dollars in benefits he
15 received from WILKES in 2004, or (b) his job offer from WILKES.
16 All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

18 HONEST SERVICES WIRE FRAUD

19 12. Paragraphs 1 through 7 and 10 through 11 of this indictment
20 are hereby realleged as if fully set forth herein.

21 13. Beginning on a date unknown to the Grand Jury, and 22 continuing through in or about April 2005, within the Southern 23 District of California and elsewhere, defendants KYLE DUSTIN FOGGO, 24 aka "Dusty" Foggo, and BRENT ROGER WILKES, devised and intended to 25 devise a material scheme to defraud the United States and its citizens
26 of defendant FOGGO's honest services, including their right to his 27 loyal, faithful, disinterested, unbiased service, to be performed free 28 of deceit, undue influence, conflict of interest, self-enrichment,

1 self-dealing, concealment, fraud, and corruption; said scheme more
2 fully described elsewhere in this indictment.

3 WIRE TRANSMISSIONS IN EXECUTION OF THE SCHEME

4 14. On or about the dates set forth below (Column "A"), within 5 the Southern District of California and elsewhere, defendants KYLE 6 DUSTIN FOGGO, aka "Dusty" Foggo, and BRENT ROGER WILKES, for the 7 purpose of executing the above-described scheme to defraud,
8 transmitted and caused to be transmitted in interstate commerce by 9 means of wire communications, certain writings, signs, signals and
